

MISUSE OF SMA'S NAME BY HEADHUNTING COMPANY

We have received feedback from a doctor who took a call from someone claiming to be calling from SMA. The doctor then realised that the caller was actually from a headhunting company, who was recruiting doctors for a private hospital. The caller eventually admitted to misusing SMA's name, and said that was the only way the call would be passed to the doctor directly.

If you receive a similar call, we would appreciate if you can assist to take down further information (company name, name of caller, name of private hospital) so that we can take further action.

You can either feedback to us via phone 6223-1264 or email sma@sma.org.sg
