

Medicine Debates 2011

SMA, the National University of Singapore (NUS) Medical Society and the Duke-NUS Student Council have jointly organised a debate on the motion, "This house believes that women are better off making lives than saving lives." It will be a mixed debate with teams made up of students from both the NUS Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine and Duke-NUS Graduate Medical School.

The motion addresses a sensitive and important issue: the challenges faced by the modern woman in juggling work and family, particularly with a demanding career in the medical profession. In the tradition of such debates, it will be filled with wit, irreverence, sharp repartee, tongue-in-cheek humour, and hand-and-foot-in-the-mouth disease.

The Guest of Honour for this event is Prof Tan Chorh Chuan, President of NUS. The chairperson for the debate is Mr Adrian Tan, Partner, Litigation and Dispute Resolution, Drew & Napier. Judges will include alumni A/Prof Paul Ananth Tambyah, Dr Tan Chi Chiu, Dr Tan Li Feng and Dr Tina Tan.

The debate, will be held on Saturday, 13 August 2011, from 2 to 5 pm, at the Shaw Foundation Alumni House, NUS Kent Ridge Campus. Light refreshments will be provided.

If you would like to attend the debate, please email Liena at membership@sma.org.sg. SMA

Medicine Debates 2011

13th August 2011, Saturday
2pm-5pm

Shaw Foundation Alumni House

This house believes that...

Women are better off making lives than saving lives

Jointly Organized by
NUS Medical Society and Duke-NUS Student Council